The basis of Lamont Christian School society of families is the infallible Word of God as interpreted in the standards of the faith of the Reformed church. This society is governed by the following guiding principles:

- (1) That all things have been created to the end that the Triune God may be glorified in and through them;
- (2) That God by His wise covenant arrangement has appointed the parent to be responsible for the training of the child to the end that God and His glory shall be central and supreme in life's total experience; and
- (3) That the training of the child shall be continued under the parent's responsible supervision in a school that carries out the basic God-honoring, God-centered program begun in the home.
